FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OFFICIAL VIDEO FOR “THE MONEY,” THE TITLE TRACK FROM CHARLIE MARS’ NEW ALBUM, PREMIERES TODAY ON VEVO

Mars Continues Fall Tour, Adds December Residency Dates At Austin’s Saxon Pub

Charlie Mars’ new video, “The Money,” premieres today on the VEVO homepage. The clip, which was directed by Ty Roberts, can be seen HERE.

“The Money” is the title track and first single from Mars’ latest album, which completes the Texas trilogy he began with Like A Bird, Like A Plane and Blackberry Light. American Songwriter observed, “like the late Jesse Winchester, Mars is a master of subtlety and a songwriter of relaxed, easy elegance that he takes to the bank with wit and charm on The Money” while Relix noted, “Charlie Mars’ expansive storytelling that captures unfurling sheets of the American heartland from an insider perspective.”

Charlie begins a four-week, Sunday night residency at Saxon Pub in Austin, TX on December 2. His U.S. tour in support of The Money continues with dates at the Aster Café in Minneapolis, MN on December 13 and Jammin Java in Vienna, VA on January 30. See below for itinerary.

Mars has been operating outside the confines of the major label world ever since self-releasing his breakthrough album, Like a Bird, Like a Plane, in 2009. Since then, he has had two Top 30 singles at AAA radio (“Listen To The Darkside” and “How I Roll”), sold 32,000 records independently, played more than 500 dates and licensed songs to shows like “Parenthood,” “Bones,” “How I Met Your Mother,” “Weeds” and “United States of Tara.” In addition to his outings with the Dixie Chicks, he has also toured with artists like Steve Earle, Tedeschi Trucks Band and Citizen Cope and his storyteller solo shows are often sell-outs. The Oxford, Mississippi-based musician talks to Southern Living about his new album, small town living and hometown college football teams Mississippi State and Ole Miss in this feature.
